NEWS RELEASE

PIANOS OF ALL SORTS OFFERED TO PUBLIC AT UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON SALE

DAYTON, Ohio — New and used pianos, some fresh from nine-month stints in the music departments at the University of Dayton and Wright State University, will be offered for sale at discounted prices from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 20, in the Music Theater Building at UD.

The selection will include grand pianos, baby grands, studios, uprights and digital pianos from Kawai America Corp., Steinway, Boston and more. The pianos will also be offered for inspection and for purchase by appointments to be arranged on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 18 and 19, on campus. Appointments can be arranged by calling (937) 229-2251.

Both universities are participants in the loan program sponsored by Kawai and the institutional division of Hauer Music Co. New instruments, provided on loan to the departments, are used free of charge for a nine-month academic year and then are offered to the public at reduced prices. The new pianos to be included in the event are also discounted.

For more information, call the appointment desk at (937) 229-2251.
